ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS:

1. From July 31 2013 to September 1 2015, post doctoral research fellow at the Translational Cardiovascular Ultrasound Research Laboratory of The Johns Hopkins Hospital. During this period and under supervision of Dr. T. P. Abraham, I have been trained in advanced cardiac imaging, acquiring experience and skills in cardiac Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI), Cardiac Tomography, 3D Echocardiography and 2D Speckle Tracking Echocardiography (STE). I have participated in research projects investigating cardiac mechanics in Hypertrophic Cardiomyopathy and Transcatheter Aortic Valve Replacement. In this regard, I conducted image analyses (conventional and tissue Doppler/strain analyses), generation of hypotheses and manuscript preparation; for the TAVR project I performed transesophageal echocardiograms of the patients enrolled in the study under the supervision of cardiac anesthesiologist. Finally, I have acquired expertise in the field of Pulmonary Artery Hypertension (PAH) and analyzed the echocardiographic parameters for the Multicentric Trial "Ambrisentan and Tadalafil Upfront Combination Therapy in Scleroderma-Associated PAH". In order to evaluate right ventricular remodeling and systolic function improvement after therapy in the setting of Scleroderma-Associated PAH, I proposed an echocardiographic substudy, analyzing the myocardial strain of the right ventricle by 2D STE, and presented the data at the American Heart Association's Scientific Sessions 2015 (November 7-11, 2015, Orlando, FL, USA).
2. Post doctoral research fellow in cardiac imaging at Morristown Medical Center/Atlantic Health System (Morristown, NJ, USA) from September 2 2015 to September 1 2016. During this period I have improved experience in cardiac MRI and 3D-Echocardiography, analyzing several clinical studies and was member of the research team of Dr. Linda Gillam (Atlantic Health System, Morristown, NJ, USA) and Dr. Martin S. Maron (Tufts Medical Center, Boston, MA, USA). Under their mentorship, I actively worked on clinical research projects focused on the fields of hypertrophic cardiomyopathy and heart valvular disease and was trained to become an independent medical researcher (oral presentation of research results at international conferences, proposal of clinical studies, preparation of manuscripts).
