PROJECT ACTIVITY

Year	Project
2019-Jan 2021	European Research Council (ERC) funded project exploring "The politics of disintegration". Project Leader: Professor Stefanie Walter The project studied the reverberations of Brexit abroad by analyzing major newspapers coverage and social media activities (Twitter) in selected European countries. My role as team member was to organize and conduct the project's text-as-data research component, including research design and implementation, data preparation and management, quality control, and data analysis. In particular, I was the leading-researcher responsible for the work package 2_a (WP 2_a), which explored Brexit-related discourse by EU leading politicians on Twitter.
