HEREBY DECREES AS FOLLOWS:

The Summer School in Novel Foods and Sustainability: the EU Model in a Global Law Perspective. Summer school organized in the framework of the activities of the Jean Monnet Chair ENFASIS is hereby instituted for the academic year 2022/2023, beginning in June. The programme

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO

Academics and Training Division

Post-Graduate and International Relations Sector coordinator is Prof. Sabrina Lanni, Associate Professor in the scientific disciplinary sector IUS/02 - Comparative private law.

Objectives

The Summer School is organized in the framework of the project “Jean Monnet Chair ENFASIS - European Novel Foods Agreement And Sustainable Intercultural Systems”, to explore the topics covered by Regulation (EU) 2015/2283 from a comparative perspective. During the Summer School, the European legal model will be illustrated in depth and analysed in a global context. The ultimate goal is to equip participants with professional skills that will enable them to gain an interdisciplinary understanding of the production and marketing of food products, with a particular focus on the protection and promotion of food safety and environmental sustainability.

Course organization

The course will be held from 5 June 2023 to 9 June 2023 online via Teams. It includes 24 hours of lessons and exercises, divided as follows:

- Novel Foods as a tool for environmental sustainability;
- The EU legal framework for food sustainability;
- Biodiversity for food and the European Green Deal;
- The regulation of genetically altered foods. The EU model compared with the US model;
- Sustainability of the garment sector and its relationship with food production;
- Food production, sustainability and animal welfare issue;
- The role of public law in promoting biodiversity and environmental sustainability;
- Food sustainability in Chinese law;
- Environmental law in the Popular Republic of China in the framework of EU-China dialogue;
- Circulation of patterns for food security in Africa;
- Japanese food and food law in the context of climate change and sustainability;
