Description	The main goal of the Programme is to highlight the cultural richness of the region of Thrace and to familiarize students with its mythological background. Further, the Programme will seek to understand the impact of myths in the shaping of the greco-roman civilization, thus stimulating a sense of common European consciousness. Apart from the textual study of myths, particular emphasis will be paid to the use of myths in innovative teaching methods concerning the ancient world and cutting edge subjects, such as myths and gender, myths in the digital era and myths in European education.

The activities of the BIP include lectures and workshops on myths of the region of Thrace and their reception, guided tours of archaeological sites and museums, participation in cultural events of the area.

Mobility and the awarding of any financial contribution are subject to the approval of the BIP Erasmus+ Multilateral Agreement among the University of Milan and the Institutes involved in the program, which is being finalized at the time of the publication of the Call for Proposal.
